THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK, June 6.-Favorable influences in the stock market this morning were entirely neutralized by a demoralized condition in sugar refineries. After the first hour the railway list became dull and moved within very narrow limits. A recent advance in the price of refined sugar created a strong tone in stock, and a rumor that Spreckles had come into the trust was an occasion of a rise of about 4 per cent. Toward the close the rumor was denied and there was a sudden drop from 8tc to 75%c, business being simply enormous. The market closed rather heavy and final changes, while irregular and for fractional amounts only, show a majority of losses, and sugar is down 254c.

Governments firm at 2.14. Petroleum, spot, opened at 86½c, declined to 86½c and closed dull; July opened at 88½c, declined to 87½c and rallied to 87½c, closing
